Bush Hostess at Luncheon

Miss Bush, hostess at luncheon, was effectively carried out in the appointments of the luncheon and shower given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Lester Bush for Miss M. Hamm. A profusion of fern vine and asparagus fern was used in decorating the small room in which the guests were seated. The bride's table, which was decorated with the other four tables, was of the Mexican vine and was a fluffy pink tulle bow be-fastened at a fetching angle to the table. The other tables were decorated with similar smaller arrangements. The guests found their refreshments by means of the daintiest of cards, appropriate for a party of charming bride-to-be.

The committee to collect clothing for the needy children is composed of Mrs. H. F. Urie, chairman, and Mrs. Frank J. Smith and Miss Sarah Bard. Mrs. F. H. Wilson and Mrs. H. F. Urie will act in an advisory capacity to assist the chairman, Mrs. O'Haver.

The Child Welfare committee of the Woman's Club expects to hold a children's health conference for school children and those under school age. During the club year, they will bring a number of well-known speakers here, among them being Dr. W. H. Hiller, of Jacksonville, who will speak on "The Great-est Thing in Life," Marcus C. Fagg, of the Children's Home in Jacksonville, and Dr. Raymond C. Turek, of the State Board of Health. Cho-Cho, the health clown, will also come to Palatka under the auspices of this organization. A number of moving picture shows will also be given at the school for the children.

Splash Party Enjoyed by Young People

One of the jolliest gatherings of the week was the splash party given by Mrs. T. E. Mobley yesterday afternoon for her son, Tom Mobley, whose ninth birthday it was. The invited guests motored to Silver Lake about four-thirty o'clock, some going in a big truck and others in cars. Bathing suits were donned very shortly after the merry party arrived at its destination, and a re-freshing swim was the order of the day.

After enjoying the water for some time, the young guests chose part-ners by means of matching picture puzzles, and then delicious ice-cream with cookies was served. Rubber balls were given as favors, and were the source of lots of fun.

Enjoying yesterday afternoon with the young honor-guest were: Betty Merrill, John Millican, George Mc-Corinack, Royall and Francis O'Neal, Walter Warren, John and Mary Tilgh-man, Fremont and Wilmer Blake, Hardy, Charles, and Barry Root, Jules and Esther de Nazario, Peggy Haile, Emmy Campbell, Frances and Rebecca Whitthorne, Jack Tilghman, Eleanor Houston, Robert Strickland, Willis Owen, Philip and Harry de Montmolin, Betty Hattox, Miriam Smith, Nathan and Harry Harris, Burt Evans, Henry Hutchinson, Jr., John Berry Davis, Katherine and Margaret Hedick and Frances and Richard McElveen, and G. W. Len-nard, of Hastings.

Mrs. Mobley was assisted in look-ing after the pleasure of her guests by Mrs. W. W. Tilghman and by Mrs. T. L. McElveen, of Hastings.

"Are All Men Alike?" is an abbreviated photograph adapted by A. P. Younger from Arthur Stringer's well-known novel, "The Waffle Iron," that appeared serially in McClure's Maga-zine. It tells the captivating story of a poor little rich girl who feels cramped by the conventional sur-roundings of her home and is tempted to try her wings for a flight in Greenwich Village.

There she blunders into all man-ner of adventures with all manner of men, and it is only by dint of good fortune and the strong arm of a good man at the right time, that prevents her from paying the price that so many girls in a moment of reckless folly are called upon to pay. As it is, "Teddy" Hayden runs the gamut of experiences with men, all of whom are captivated by her beauty and her apparent disregard for all convention.

TAKE A TRIP THROUGH
GREENWICH VILLAGE TONIGHT

May Allison, in her latest Metro production, "Are All Men Alike?" will be the feature attraction at the Grand today. "Are All Men Alike?" presents Miss Allison in the role of a rich, headstrong young girl who desires to live her own life in her own way among the Bohemian cir-cles of New York's night life, and as such it is said to offer the talented star one of her best opportunities on the screen that she has thus far en-joyed.

Putnam High Pig
Skin Warriors In
For Beating Ocala

There is no doubt now but what Palatka is going to have a regular football team. The squad is out regu-larly every afternoon and from the side lines it looks as though they are developing some speed. Several games have been arranged, the first to take place on the local gridiron October 15, at 4 p. m. Everybody in Palatka should turn out to see the boys play their first game. Ocala is coming with a strong team and with the intention of giving Putnam High their first licking, but is the old squad keeps up the good work and does the proper training we are afraid that somebody is going to be disap-pointed. Don't forget the date and when you are approached to buy a ticket be sure and buy one. This is the boys' first game and they need support morally and financially. Games have been arranged with Gainesville, for November 5, and two with the Florida Military Academy.

At a meeting of the student body yesterday morning, Paul Leverett was elected manager of the Ath-letic Association, and will, in the fu-ture, handle all business affairs con-nected with the association.

WEAK, NERVOUS,

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. I saw after taking some Cardui that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person."

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night, I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me. My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Since it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments.
